Further endoscopic features of microscopic colitis include:

- a blotchy and punctate mucosal erythema and friability with deranged vasculature;
- b nodular mucosa, seen under white-light endoscopy;
- c colonic mucosal fracture and overcrowded vasculature.

Further examples of nodular mucosa seen after targeted spraying of indigo carmine 1%.