Supporting Information
Review - PLAMED-2010-11-1149-REV.R2

Metabolites of the Ellagitannin Geraniin and Their Antioxidant Activities

Hideyuki Ito
Affiliation
Division of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Okayama University Graduate School of Medicine, Dentistry and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Okayama, Japan
Correspondence
Assoc. Prof. Hideyuki Ito
Division of Pharmaceutical Sciences
Okayama University Graduate School of Medicine, Dentistry and Pharmaceutical Sciences
1-1-1 Tsushimanaka
Kita-ku
Okayama 700-8530
Japan
phone: +81/86/251 7937
fax: +81/86/251 7937
hito@cc.okayama-u.ac.jp
Ion chromatograms of corilagin in rat urine samples obtained by HPLC-ESI-MS/MS in the multiple reaction-monitoring mode with negative ionization. a Urine samples collected 0 – 12 and 12 – 24 h after oral administration of geraniin. b Urine samples collected 0 – 12, 12 – 24, and 24 – 48 h after oral administration of corilagin.