

Highlights from RöKo International

“RöKo International”, the English program at the German Radiology Congress, offers a broad spectrum of topics with speakers from all over Europe, from Asia and the USA. This year’s topics are Oncologic Imaging, Interventional Imaging, Musculoskeletal Imaging, Cardiovascular Imaging, Chest imaging, Paediatric radiology, Abdominal Imaging and Breast Imaging.

International Interpretation Quiz

An undisputed highlight will be the International Interpretation Quiz on Wednesday. The quiz will feature five young and experienced international radiologists in their areas of expertise using two interesting clinical cases to be solved by each of them. Moreover, the image interpretation session will be interactive with the audience. The participants of the session which will be able to answer questions for each case ensuring that the presentations are lively and entertaining for the audience. Participants interested in the session are advised to please show up on time.

KEY FACTS

Wednesday, May 29,
12:30 pm to 1:30 pm
Room Röntgen
Moderation: Prof. Dr. Marc Dewey,
Berlin

Guest of Honor from overseas

Another highlight: RNSA President Valerie P. Jackson, MD will honor the 100th German Radiology Congress with her presence. As part of the session “Self-Management for young radiologists”, she will be reporting about “The Value of the Right Side of the Brain in Leadership”.

“SELF-MANAGEMENT FOR YOUNG RADIOLOGISTS”

Friday, 31st May 2019,
3:45 pm to 5:15 pm
Room Levy-Dorn
Moderation: Prof. Dr. Michael Forsting,
Essen/Dr. Stefan Lohwasser, Berlin/
PD Dr. Peter Bannas, Hamburg

3:45 pm – 4:10 pm
The Value of the Right Side of the Brain
in Leadership
Prof. Dr. Valerie Jackson